A NEW VIRTUAL ERA

RISK ANALYTICS SYMPOSIUM 2021

Although last year's symposiums were cancelled due to concerns regarding COVID-19, the Actuarial Science Club and IRisk Lab are working together to present an alternative that ensures a safe, yet interactive event for 2021.

Coming to a computer screen near you, this year's Spring Symposium is being hosted on Cvent, a virtual event platform.

This adaptable platform allows experts from any location or actuarial industry to present and discuss their innovative solutions that are working to combat this year's emerging risks.
