

Graduate Fellowship Committee

The Graduate Fellowship Committee reviews applications from currently enrolled graduate students, in order to make recommendations for Fellowships to be awarded in the following academic year. Shortly after the Fellowship application deadline in March, the Graduate Office notifies committee members that applications are available for review. The committee then convenes before April 15 to make its recommendations. The committee is chaired by the Director of Graduate Studies.

updated by R. Laugesen, July 16, 2015