

Guided Individual Study (GIS)

GIS offers undergraduate credit courses in an independent study format. Students enroll at any time and have up to nine months to complete the course, learning at their own pace using self-instructional materials. The GIS committee oversees the instruction and course materials for this program.

Information about GIS can be found at:

<http://www.continuinged.uiuc.edu/outreach/gis.cfm>