Project (1): Risk models with adaptive premium policies

Faculty: Shu Li

In most of the literature on ruin theory, it is assumed that the incoming premium rate per unit time is constant over time; this assumption does not always reflect accurately the insurance practice. To better reflect the surplus cash flows of an insurance portfolio, we propose some risk models with adaptive premium policies and analyze ruin-related quantities both numerically and theoretically.

Students:

- Siyuan Liu
- Chaohan Shang
- Yunxiang Zhang